

National Labor College
School of Labor Studies
Labor Studies Major
Spring 2014 Course Registration Guide

Please consult with assigned academic advisor if you have already completed courses in your semester block

This is my...	I should register for:
First Semester	Semester	LBCC-4100 Living Labor History (with required residency)
	Term A or Term B	NLCC-4200 Labor and Work in the United States
Second Semester	Semester	LBCC-4400 Labor and Politics
	Term A or Term B	NLCC-4200 Labor and Work in the Global Economy
Third Semester	Semester	LBCC-4300 Research Methods
		LBCC-4400 Labor and Politics
Fourth Semester	Semester	Labor Studies Elective (upper division NLC courses)*
		Labor Studies Elective (upper division NLC courses)*
Fifth Semester	Semester	Labor Studies Elective (upper division NLC courses)*
		Labor Studies Elective (upper division NLC courses)*
Sixth Semester	Semester	Labor Studies Elective (upper division NLC courses)*
		LBST-4950 Capstone Writing Seminar (with required residency)

Contact academic advisor for recommended electives*

For the most current Textbook and course materials information see eCampus.com

For more information on NLC programs and courses please see the course catalog:

<http://www.nlc.edu/students/catalogs.html>

Please note that course descriptions and instructors are subject to change. Consult Self-Serve for the most up-to-date information.